RE: Settlement offer on credit card account number [Redacted]
Client's Name: [Redacted]
Balance: $3118.23

Wells Fargo Financial Cards will accept $1248 as settlement of the above amount owed if paid no later than 5/27/2011. To take advantage of the opportunity to settle this debt, please have your client read this letter and acknowledge acceptance of all terms by signing in the space provided.

- The Internal Revenue Service requires financial institutions to annually report to the IRS all debts in excess of $600 that were discharged by mutual agreement between institutions and their customers. If the settlement amount that you agree to pay results in a discharge of more than $600 of the principal balance due on your account, we will report the settlement to the IRS.
- Wells Fargo will report this account with the major Consumer Reporting Agencies to reflect "Account paid in full for less than the full balance" on the credit bureau file and take no further action on the remaining amount.

Wells Fargo Financial Cards will not process or complete settlements negotiated by a third-party on our customers' behalf unless all terms within this letter are acknowledged by the debtor(s). Please have your client sign and return this letter to the return address noted above, verifying that you and your client have read and understand the terms of the settlement offer. Payments made absent this signed form will be applied as payment on the entire balance listed above and we will continue all collection activities allowed us by law for the remaining balance.
